Dear Resident:

Never during our lifetimes have we, the people, had such a challenging experience as coping with the pandemic known as the coronavirus.

Each level of government, from local to national or from national to local are responding in whatever way the leadership of that entity can generate and get others to follow. Also, not for profits, faith-based groups, philanthropic organizations, private businesses, individuals, and others have stepped up to the plate and are doing miraculous work.

I am extremely proud of the work being done by the U. S. House of Representatives led by our Speaker, the Honorable Nancy Pelosi and our leadership team who have led the effort to try and make sure that every person in our country is well protected, that we have resources in place, and that we can preserve and rebuild our economy and our lives once the virus is arrested.

I commend our Governor, Mayor, and County Board President for their leadership on this crisis and thank all of our health personnel and first responders for their courageous, heroic, and frontline work.

Now comes what each one of us can do?

- First and foremost, I recommend and strongly urge that all residents follow the STAY IN PLACE policies promulgated by any units of government and public health officials.
- Social distancing is a recognized approach to trying to stop the spread of the virus, let's use it to the hilt, let's stay away from crowds, keep a safe distance, even from people with whom we are familiar.
- Cover mouth and noses when coughing or sneezing, wash hands frequently with soap and warm water, do everything possible to stay healthy.
- For extra precaution, Face masks or protective covering can be used

If we follow all of these recommendations, we will overcome this crisis and begin to ease the suffering for so many.

Sincerely,
Danny K. Davis
Congressman, 7th District

Economic Impact Payments: What you need to know

<https://www.irs.gov/coronavirus>

The distribution of economic impact payments should begin immediately and distributed automatically, with no action required for most people. Please do not call the IRS about this. Call our office if you have additional questions at 773-533-7520.

The IRS will automatically issue economic recovery payment to social security beneficiaries.

At what income levels do the rebates end?

The rebate depends on family size and decreases by $5 for every $100 over the maximum income. Here is a general idea.

Filing Status	Potential Rebate	Maximum Rebate Until	No Rebate After
Single, No Children	$1,200	$75,000	$99,000
Head of Household, 1 Child	$1,700	$112,500	$146,500
Head of Household, 2 Children	$2,200	$112,500	$156,500
Joint Filers, No Children	$2,400	$150,000	$198,000
Joint Filers, 1 Child	$2,900	$150,000	$208,000
Joint Filers, 2 Child	$3,400	$150,000	$218,000

Is there a cap on the number of children that I can get a rebate for?

No, one will receive the $500 payment for each child under age 17.

Will I get a rebate for my 19-year-old child living with me or my 22-year-old who is disabled?

Unfortunately, we were unable to include those individuals in the package.

Will my rebate be penalized if I am a retiree who is subject to the Windfall Elimination Penalty or the Government Pension Offset?

No,

If I have defaulted on my federal student loans or owe the IRS money, will the government take my rebate?

No, the government will not take your Emergency Rebates.

If I have a child support order in effect, will the government garnish my rebate?

Yes, the government will garnish your rebate if you have a child support order in effect.

What if my income changed a lot since my 2018 or 2019 tax return?

- To ensure the rebates go out quickly, the IRS is using the most recent tax return.
- If your income has been reduced and you believe you qualify for a higher rebate, the IRS will provide a way for taxpayers to apply for the adjusted amount.
- Check the IRS website – www.IRS.gov/coronavirus for updates.

Take care of yourself!

- People who are 65 or older are more likely to have serious COVID-19 illness. Why?

- May be because immune systems change with age, making it harder to fight off diseases and infection.
- Older adults also are more likely to have underlying health conditions that make it harder to cope with and recover from illness.
- People of any age who live in a nursing home or long-term care facility are at higher risk.

Other people who may be at higher risk to contract COVID-19, regardless of age or disability, include:

- People with chronic lung disease or moderate-to-severe asthma
- People who have serious heart conditions
- People with severe obesity (body mass index [BMI] ≥ 40)
- People with underlying medical conditions, particularly if not well controlled, such as those with diabetes, renal failure, or liver disease might also be at risk

What you are entitled to:

Illinois may use Title III-B, C-1, C-2, D, and/or E funds for any disaster relief activities for older individuals or family caregivers served under the OAA, which may include, but are not limited to:

- Providing drive through, take out, or home-delivered meals

- Providing well-being checks via phone, in-person, or virtual means
- Providing homemaker, chore, grocery/pharmacy/supply delivery, or other services.
